POPE'S CONDITION WORSE.

Specialists Urgently Summoned.

(Reuter's Service.)

London, January 20.
Cardinal Bourne has circularised the clergy of Westminster Cathedral requesting their earnest prayers for the Pope, who is dangerously ill.
According to a message from Rome at midday on Friday His Holiness became worse during the night. A medical bulletin says that he passed a sleepless and agitated night.

Later.
Reuter's correspondent at Rome says that the Pope's condition suddenly became worse at four this morning. The greatest specialists in Rome were urgently summoned. A bulletin issued this morning stated that His Holiness has influenza bronchitis; inflammation having spread to the right lung, with dyspnoea intense.

Graye Condition.

Later.
The Pope's condition is grave. Oxygen was administered and His Holiness received the Holy Communion. The Pope's family are at the bedside. Consternation prevails in the Vatican, the Cardinals waiting in the ante-chamber. Prayers have been ordered in every Catholic institution in Rome.

The Pope Dying.

At six in the evening the Pope's physician reports that the only hope is Divine intervention. Pneumonia has developed on the right side and neither lung is functioning properly on account of widespread catarrh preventing expectoration and threatening suffocation. His Holiness retains the control of his mental faculties. After receiving the viaticum those at the bedside withdrew leaving the Pope and Cardinal Gasparri alone for twenty minutes when it is believed that the Holiness communicated his last wishes. After this the extreme unction was administered.

Crowds throng the churches where the Blessed Sacrament is exposed.
Numerous persons have visited Westminster Cathedral to pray for the Pope's recovery. Prayers are being said in all the churches in the Westminster diocese.

NATIONAL LIBERAL COUNCIL.

A New Organisation Formed.

London, January 20.
Central Hall, Westminster, was gaily decorated with national flags, on the occasion of a Coalition Liberal conference. Nearly three thousand were present. The Attorney-General, Sir Gordon Hewart, in moving the formation of a National Liberal Council, said they were forming not a new party but a new organisation for the purpose of uniting and strengthening the Liberal forces of the country under the leadership of Mr. Lloyd George. He invited all Liberals to co-operate with the Prime Minister in a programme of peace, retrenchment and reform.
Mr. Churchill advocated the maintenance of the coalition until the problems of stability of conditions and revival of world trade solved. He declared that the advent of a socialist government to power would be a national and imperial disaster.
It was unanimously decided to form a National Liberal Council with Mr. Lloyd George as president and Mr. Churchill as vice-president.

UNIONIST DEMONSTRATION.

Mr. Chamberlain on Expenditure and India.

London, January 20.
In a speech at a Unionist demonstration in Glasgow, Mr. Chamberlain declared that expenditure must be reduced by between one hundred and fifty and two hundred millions sterling, not in order to reduce taxation but to make ends meet. The firm policy of the Government in India was upheld by the Legislative Assembly at Delhi which had rejected by 53 votes to 33 a resolution recommending the abandonment of Government repression.

New York, January 20.
The Commercial Cable Company announces that two new cables between New York and Emden will be laid and put into operation, by October, 1922, under a contract with the German Atlantic Company.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO.

A Glance at our Files.

(Jan 23-26, 1897.)

At the meeting of the Jubilee Committee held to-day at the Government Offices there were present the Hon. Mr. Chater in the Chair, Messrs. J. H. Stewart, Lockhart, T. Jackson, H. N. Mody, J. J. Francis, Q. C., Hon. E. R. Bellios, Hon. J. J. Bell-Irving, Hon. Wei Yuk, and Mr. Mr. Li Sing. Mr. Chater read the Governor's letter of invitation, and after some conversation it was decided, without any formal resolution being put to the meeting, that His Excellency should be asked to appoint a Committee consisting of the members of the old Jubilee Committee now present in Hongkong, together with certain other gentlemen (whose names were suggested), under the Chairmanship of Mr. Chater, to ascertain the wishes of the community and make arrangements for the celebration of the completion in June next of the sixtieth year of Her Majesty's reign.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

The Hon. Stewart Lockhart (Colonial Secretary) had a narrow escape from serious injury if not from death last night at St. George's Hall. He was sitting out with Mr. Sisson and a friend in one of the alcoves of the library, which was used as a card-room, when a heavy piece of plaster moulding from the ceiling fell at his feet. The dancing overhead had shaken the ceiling and the stuff which fell was quite heavy enough to have smashed in one's skull like an egg-shell. To those who believe in omens like our Celestial friends do, such an incident should surely be full of significance. Anyhow, we congratulate the Colonial Secretary on his escape.

WHAT A CONTRAST.

The launch of the second of the new vessels being built for the Nippon Yusen Kaisha took place on 21st. ult. This was from Henderson's yard on the Clyde, and was unfortunately not attended by accident. She is named the Hakata Maru, and while launching her one of the check chains broke, causing the vessel to run into the opposite bank of the river. It was expected she would get off next tide, but it was not till the afternoon of the following day that she was properly put into her future element.

HATS OFF!

The following notice was pasted in the passage at the Registry to-day:—Notice.—The public transacting business in the Registry cannot be allowed to remain with hats on or smoking in the office, or otherwise behave in a disorderly manner. This order will be strictly enforced. J. W. Norton Kyshe, Registrar, Supreme Court, January 26th, 1897.

BURNS CELEBRATION.

To commemorate the birth of Scotland's "ploughman bard" a Scottish concert was given last evening in St. George's Hall, City Hall. There was a large attendance and "brither Scots" mustered in goodly force to do honour to "puir Robbie" the military element supplying an appreciable colour effect. The hall was prettily festooned with bunting, St. Andrew's cross was neatly shown in electric lights in the ceiling's centre and a big picture of the worthy saint himself had a flag-draped place of honour on the platform. Around the walls were banners showing the "Red Cross" of England, the three lions of Scotland, and the harp of Ireland.

A MOVING INCIDENT.

In reference to the Carrow case Sport and Gossip says:—Of all the moving incidents in the painful drama now being enacted in Yokohama none more curious will I think, be found than that connected with the formal and dry procedure of drawing those to be summoned on the jury. In the book are the names with a number against them, in a bag are the numbers, and the first counter drawn was that allotted to the dead man, Walter Raymond Hollowell, Captain of the STRIKE GLOOM.

The Gods Take Pity On Hongkong.

Strikes are depressing things, and any little help to dispel the general gloom they cast over the community is more than welcome. Hongkong has reason, therefore, in the midst of its travail, to thank the gods—the gods of fun and frolic—for the treat unusually rare and refreshing afforded by the comedy programme showing at the Coronet Theatre this evening. Even for an avowed comedy bill, entertainment is notably rich in humour. First, there's Mack Sennett's new five-reel feature film entitled, "Down on the Farm"—the name alone is enough to inspire delightful visions—and then there's a capital burlesque labelled "Perfectly Fiendish Flannigan" in which open fun is poked at the serious Bill Hart type of Western hero. Highly original and exceedingly amusing this clever production makes a happy companion for "Down on the Farm," a mirthful triumph featuring the ever exuberant Ben Turpin as "Her Husband." Other characters who figure in the diverting series of complications and surprises which is the very soul of this picture, are a village swain, his rustic sweetheart, a sportive banker, an obedient wife, and a mystery man. Special mention should be made also of the trained dog and Maltese cat whose amazing intelligence materially contributes to the general merriment. A rare programme this, indeed.

YAUMATI GOVERNMENT SCHOOL.

To-Day's Prize Distribution.

The prizes were distributed this morning by Mrs. Irving, the Head Master presiding. In the course of the annual report it was shown that the average attendance during 1921 was 237. In the annual examination in December 204 boys passed out of 232 examined. The whole of Class 4 passed the open examination for entrance into Queen's College. The Head Master thanked the various masters who had given up their spare time in arranging games, sports, bathing picnics, library etc.

The proceedings concluded with cheers for Mrs. Irving.

TO DOG OWNERS?

Except with the permission in writing of the Colonial Veterinary Surgeon, the removal of any dog from the island of Hongkong, to Kowloon and New Kowloon, or vice versa, is prohibited.

CHINESE G.O.M.

On Monday at 10.30 a.m. His Excellency Wu Ting-fang, the Chinese Minister to the United States, Spain and Peru, accompanied by his Secretaries, paid an official visit to His Excellency the Governor at Government House, where Sir William, with his Private Secretary and Mr. Stewart Lockhart, received His Excellency. The Governor, accompanied by his Private Secretary and the Colonial Secretary, returned the call yesterday at 10.45 a.m. at "Idlewild" where the Chinese Minister is at present staying.

COMMODORE'S BUNGALOW

The Naval bungalow b flag built at the Peak for the resident Commodore was laid yesterday afternoon. There were a number of visitors and after the stone was placed in position Mrs. Swinton Holland declared it "well and truly laid." The contractors, Messrs. A. Wan and A. Loong, presented her with an address and also a handsome mallet and trowel. The workmen were entertained by Commodore and Mrs. Holland, and a very pleasant time was spent by the

SEAMEN'S STRIKE.

The Kinshan Returns Empty.

CONFERENCE AT CANTON.

Matters remain exactly where they were yesterday. Only one incident of any real note falls to be reported. That is the return of the Kinshan—empty except for some little mail. Precisely what went wrong is not easy to discover, so reticent, are all concerned.

Canton The Centre of Interest.

According to the Union officials the centre of interest has shifted to Canton. They state that conferences are being held between the Government and the British and American consuls with a view to arriving at a settlement. From Canton, then, may come the next information of any real value. A call on the Hon. Mr. E. R. Hallifax this morning elicited the bare statement that there was nothing to report. The arrival without cargo of the Kinshan lends piquancy to the fact that at 11 a.m. she was again ready to pull out and was only awaiting the final order.

"With Friendship."

Yesterday, the Union officials inform us, the various labour guilds in Hongkong met and urged the seamen to stand firm. "They also offered their support," it was added.

"No, with friendship," was the reply.

Canton, it seems, does better by them than that, for it offers monetary help.

The threat to secure Lascara, Malaya, Japanese and Formosans leaves the Union officials cold, they tell us. "The result will be that the shore coolies will refuse to load or unload vessels and Chinese would be passengers will decline to travel. The companies will gain nothing by that move and will only spread the trouble."

It will be remembered the Hongkong, Canton and Macao Steamboat Company's steamer Kinshan, left Hongkong for Canton on Thursday morning with a crew of Naval men and a guard of Royal Marines. She returned to Hongkong yesterday afternoon at 3.45. The Kinshan sailed without passengers or cargo, with the Captain of H.M.S. Curlew in charge. A large crowd of Chinese, including coolies employed by fishermen of the various markets, and wharf habits, collected on the sea front to watch the Kinshan's arrival; but no one without a permit (except Police Sergeants and Revenue Officers) was allowed to enter the wharf, on which a guard of six soldiers of the Wilshire Regiment was placed. The object of despatching the Kinshan to Canton was to obtain food supplies and in that respect the trip was a failure, for the only "cargo" brought by her consisted of several bags of mail, which were transferred to a mail truck as the ship went alongside the wharf, and conveyed to the Post Office.

Sampan Men Intimidated.

According to information received, the Kinshan did not go alongside the Company's wharf in Canton on arrival at that port, but anchored off Shamene, apparently to avoid trouble. "The attitude of the strikers in Canton was hostile and I was subject to some inconvenience when I landed there," said a responsible Chinese employed on the Kinshan to a "Telegraph" reporter yesterday. Our informant said that shortly after the ship had anchored he went ashore to attend to his personal affairs and also to collect business debts. In the afternoon he went to the sea front with the intention of returning the ship, but he found to his surprise that all the boatmen declined to take him as a fare, saying that a threat had been made by the strikers that if they rowed to the Kinshan the strikers would set fire to their boats and to the steamer as well. He had therefore to spend the night in his own house. The same night he received a letter from the "Seamen's Union" in Canton, the purport of which was a warning to him to be careful in his movements, which would entail his being taken into custody if they were in any way detrimental to the interests of the Union. Our informant returned to Hongkong by the morning train yesterday.

Conference at Canton.

From a Canton source we learn that over 3,000 seamen strikers housed in Canton marched together to the Presidential office on Thursday at noon and assailed for help, Mr. C. C. Wu, the Foreign Vice-Minister, received the strikers and promised to help them. The seamen then proceeded to the Civil Governor's Yamen, where they were received by Mr. Koo, the Commissioner for the Civil Affairs, who, after giving them some advice, agreed to mediate in the trouble.

The Hongkong Government despatched several important delegates to Canton to assist Civil Governor Chan Kwing-ming to use his influence to effect a settlement. At the request of Dr. J. W. Jamieson, the British Consul, a conference was held at the Civil Governor's Yamen when there were present General Chan Kwing-ming, Mr. Frank Lee (the Commissioner for Foreign Affairs), five delegates of the seamen, two representatives of the Canton Labour Union, the British Vice-Consul and Mr. A. E. Wood (Assistant Secretary for Chinese Affairs of Hongkong), the representative of the Hongkong Government.

British Vice-Consul's Efforts.

The British Vice-Consul demanded that representatives be immediately despatched by the Seamen's Union and that officers be appointed and sent by the Civil Governor to Hongkong, to mediate with the shipowners for a settlement.

The seamen's delegate, Chan Ping sang, replied that without a satisfactory settlement no delegate could be despatched to Hongkong.

The British Vice-Consul then suggested that it would be advisable that the seamen should first return to Hongkong to resume work, and that he would undertake to mediate for a proper settlement. The seamen's delegates rejected this suggestion.

Civil Governor Chan then consulted with Mr. Wood and the British Vice-Consul for some time. Eventually the British Consul drafted and sent a telegram to the Hongkong Governor requesting him to ask the ship owners whether they could accept the present demands of the seamen. The British Consul also enquired whether the seamen could further reduce their demands. The seamen's delegates replied and said that their counter-demands submitted the other day were final and they could not make further reduction.

The Kinshan's Trip.

The British Vice-Consul finally said that owing to the shortage of provisions on board the various warships, the Hongkong Government had specially despatched some Naval men to take charge of the Kinshan in order to resume the steamer service between Canton and Hongkong, for transportation of food supplies to the latter port to meet the needs of the Navy. He hoped that Civil Governor Chan would advise the various workmen to refrain from causing any trouble. Besides, there were some 650,000 Chinese in Hongkong and it was hoped that they would take pity on these people, suffering from a shortage of provisions, and that foodstuffs would be supplied to them.

It is learned that Civil Governor Chan agreed to prevent any obstacle to the Kinshan's coming to Canton.

It is stated by the Chinese press that, judging from yesterday's conference, the day of settlement is nearer than before, although no satisfactory result was reached; and it is the thought that the strike may be completely settled in the next few days.

The J. C. J. C. contradict the rumour that they have in mind to engage Japanese crews. We gave it with reserve and withdrew it without reserve.

Union Official Charged.

A Union official named Chan Cheuk Hing who went on board the Kinshan yesterday for the purpose of calling on the crew is alleged to have assaulted the

THE QUINTS.

Farewell Show To-night.

"The Quints" give their farewell performance to-night, winding up their visit with "Pot Pourri." The shows they have staged in the Theatre Royal during their short stay have gone down well with Hongkong audiences.

Last night there was a good "house" to see "Patchwork," in which entertainment the high standard of the Company was maintained. Miss Jessie Hitter as a "knot" after a night out was a great success and Mr. Guy Fane was funnier than ever. Miss Mavis French and Miss Dorothy James completely charmed the audience with their catchy songs and Mr. R. B. Salisbury again proved a favourite. Mr. Dodd Mehan and Mr. Harold Farrer furnished a number of songs which were deservedly applauded and the other members of the Company added their quota to make the show a real success.

"The Quints" have earned a good reputation in the Colony and there is almost sure to be a good "house" to witness their farewell performance to-night. They are well worth a visit and intending patrons should book at Messrs. Montiel's without delay to make sure of getting a good seat.

Games Fund. At this fête the girls produced a play "The Fairy managed by Mrs. Jenner. This play was three times repeated at the Theatre Royal, Hongkong, under the direction of Mr. Wilchell, the proceeds being devoted to children's charities at home.

The Annual Examination.
The general result of the annual examination held in December was good.

The pupils in Class 1, 8 in number, were examined by the Hongkong University. Two boys sat for Matriculation and A. Kinross passed, the first to matriculate from this school. Two boys and four girls took the Senior Local Examination and five passed, J.
Collett, B. Bell, E. Davidson, F.
Dunn and D. Ogilvie. Class 11, consisting of 12 pupils, sat for the Junior Local Examination, and 11 passed, E. Barth, D. Ellis, E. Ensign, C. Hast, W. Jenner, J. Leete, G. Ramsay, M. Stuart, L. Weill,
D. Witchell, M. Woolley. W. Jenner obtained a distinction in English.

The results of the examination of Classes 3, 4, 5 and 6 were very good, the general intelligence and keenness of the pupils, with few exceptions, being very evident.
Great improvement was shown in Composition, Literature, History, Geography, Arithmetic, Drawing and Writing. The work done by Class 5, under Miss Parsons, deserves special mention.

As a result of these examinations the following obtained Government Scholarships: Class 2, W.
Jenner; Class 3, E. Leete; Class 4,
G. Foster; Class 5, J. Barth; Class
6, G. Arnold.

The Dock Scholarships were awarded to A. Kinross and Elsa Bell, and the J. R. M.
Smith Scholarship to Marjory Stuart.

In June for the first time in the history of the School some 75% of the pupils were presented for the Examination of the Royal Drawing Society, with excellent results, only two failing to obtain a certificate. In all, 55 Honours and 59 Pass certificates were awarded in the 4 Divisions.

Division 1, 32 Honours, 20 Pass.
Division 2, 19 Honours, 19 Pass.
Division 3, 8 Honours, 11 Pass.
Division 4, 1 Honour, 9 Pass.
Marjory Stuart obtained honours in all four divisions. The general report of the Society was, "Some very pleasing work, especially in the early divisions." This result is due to the painstaking efforts of Mrs. MacPherson and Mrs. Nightingale, and to the interest taken in the work by both instructors and pupils.

Cookery Classes for Forms 1, 2 and 3 were held during the year, but perforce discontinued during the summer months.

Singing was reorganized and taught in Classes 2-6 by Miss Parsons, to whom great credit is due for the progress made.

French was taken in all Classes
by Madame Mousson and Miss Sorby and satisfactory work was done.

The Chinese Classes continue to make progress.

Athletics

Games: The athletic side of the School has been well developed and the boys and girls now play and enjoy all the games usually played in Home schools. The boys have been divided into three "Houses," each under a captain, and keen rivalry in games is the result.

Cricket: We are deeply grateful to our friends, the Committee and members of the Kowloon Cricket Club, who have given us permission to use their ground and nets every afternoon.
Matches have been played against the Ellis Kadoorie School for Indians, and we hope to arrange fixtures with other Schools.

Football was played twice a week on the ground at Yau-mat and several matches were arranged.

Basket-ball was made possible by the gift of apparatus by the Kowloon Dock, and in November,
Mr. Dome, of the Chinese Y.M.C.A., brought over the Senior teams of Queen's College and St. Paul's College, to play an exhibition game.

Hockey was played by the girls during the cooler months of the year.

Swimming was very popular during the summer months, and permission was again granted to the School to use the Kowloon Dock beach on two days a week, the majority of the pupils going into the water every day. With one or two exceptions, all the children attending the School can swim, and most of them swim very well indeed.

Gladys Ramsay, Class 2, is the Champion Lady-Swimmer of the Colon (100-yards), and she also won the Harbour Race, in which race also Daisy Witchell, Class 2, swam well and gained second place.

Donald Ogilvie swam in the Harbour Race for men, and completed the course.

We entered a team, captained by Gladys Ramsay, in the Team Race
at Queen's College Swimming Sports—the first time a girl had swum in those sports—and we reached the semi-final.

The Boxing classes were well attended and the boys have developed well under the expert coaching of Sergeant Kid Marriott and Mr. Barry. The only objection to these and the Physical Instruction Classes seems to be that the boys so soon outgrow their garments.

I thank Lady Stubbs for giving a special prize for History, and Mr.
Blason, Mr. O. I. Ellis and Mr.
Abraham who have also given special prizes.

I desire to express to the members of the Staff my keen appreciation of their whole-hearted support in all the varied activities of the School life, and to thank you, Mrs. Irving, for so kindly coming here this evening to present the prizes.

HONGKONG'S TRADE.

Chamber of Commerce Report.

The fortnightly Price Current and Market Report issued by the Hongkong General Chamber of Commerce states—

Cotton piece goods and fancy cotton goods.—Sales of Lenox, Poplins, Venetians and Black Drills have been effected at very low prices. Unimportant transactions in Grey and White Shirtings are also reported. The Seamen's Strike is having a detrimental effect on clearances.

Cotton Yarn.—The market ruled very quiet and practically no business was transacted from first hands. Values have been nominally unchanged but inclined to be on the easy side. Quotations are—No. 10s $158.194, No. 12s $176.302, No. 16s $193.323, No. 20s $200.223. Arrivals 2,000 bales. Sales 500 bales. Shipments nil. Unsold Stock 6,500 bales. Bargains 7,000 bales.

Woolens.—The market is still dull. With the approach of the China New Year and the Strike clearances are very poor.

Raw Cottons.—No business has transpired, and values are nominally unaltered as follows:—Indian grades at $24.30. Chinese grades at $27.37 per picul.

Metal.—With the exception of reported sales of some 1,500 tons of Steel Plate Cuttings at $3.30, very little business has been moving. Steel Bars are on offer at $4.50 to $4.75, but buyers hold off, even at these exceptionally cheap prices. Large quotations are to still to come forward, which will arrive after contract date. Wire Nails 1½-3 are on offer at $9.00 to $9.10, without finding buyers. Tin plates are quoted at $9.00 but market is dull.

Flour market report. Stock: About 1,010,000 sacks. Quotations: American Patent $3.80 per sack American Straight $2.85 per sack American Cut off $2.90 per sack Shanghai Flour $3.15 per sack Australian No. 1 $2.90.

Window Glass.—Some small business has found the books at $8.00-$8.40 per case for fair average sizes. No fresh business reported.

RUSH OF EXPORT ORDERS FOR SCOTCH COAL.

Scottish coalowners have a rush of export orders unequalled since pre-war days, says a Home paper. Steamers are loading night and day. So pressed are some Freshire and Lothian collieries that it has been found necessary to close the order books temporarily. Miners are working overtime.

HONGKONG HOTEL COMPANY LIMITED.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that an EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING OF THE ABOVE COMPANY will be held at the HONGKONG HOTEL Pedder Street Victoria in the Colony of Hongkong on WEDNESDAY THE FIRST DAY OF FEBRUARY, 1922 AT NOON for the purpose of considering and, if thought fit, passing the following Resolutions as Extraordinary Resolutions namely—

(1) That the Authorized Capital of the Company (which is now $2,500,000 consisting of 250,000 shares of the nominal value of $10 each—whereof 219,300 shares have been issued) be increased from $2,500,000 consisting as aforesaid to $5,000,000 (consisting of 500,000 shares of the nominal value of $10 each) by the creation of 250,000 additional shares of the nominal value of $10 each ranking (subject as hereinafter mentioned) as from date of allotment for dividend and in all other respects pari passu with the shares constituting the Company's present issued Capital.

(2) That 109,650 shares be offered (in the proportion of one new share for every complete number of two old shares held by them respectively) to the persons who on the date of the confirmation of this Resolution as a Special Resolution are registered in the Company's Share Register as the holders of the said 219,300 shares at a premium of $5 per share and so that on allotment the nominal amount due in respect of such 109,650 shares plus the said premium of $5 per share shall be payable as follows—

| Date of Payment | Amount payable in respect of the nominal value of each share. | Amount payable of the premium on each share. | Total |
|------------------|---|--|-------|
| 15th March 1922 | $3 | $2 | $5 |
| 15th August 1922 | $3 | $2 | $5 |

and further that until such time as the said 109,650 shares shall be fully paid up they shall vis a vis the said 219,300 shares, only rank for dividend in proportion to the ratio borne by the amount paid up thereon to the full nominal value ($10) thereof, and that any of the said 109,650 shares which shall not be taken up by the Company's Shareholders in manner aforesaid be disposed of in such manner as the Company's Board of Directors shall think fit.

(3) That the balance of the shares constituting the Company's unissued Capital be issued at such time or times, in such manner and upon such terms and conditions in every respect as the Company's Board of Directors may decide.

(4) That no Shareholder shall be entitled to any offer of a fraction of an additional share in respect of any odd share held by him.

Should the above Resolutions be passed by the requisite majority, they will be submitted for confirmation as Special Resolutions to a SECOND EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING to be held at the HONGKONG HOTEL Pedder Street aforesaid on SATURDAY, THE 18th DAY OF FEBRUARY, 1922, AT NOON for the purpose of considering and, if thought fit, confirming such Resolutions as Special Resolutions accordingly.

NEW SCOTLAND YARD HEAD.

Sir Basil Thomson's Successor.

It is stated that Major General Sir Basil Thomson, C.B., C.M.G., will be Sir Basil Thomson's successor as head of the Special Branch at Scotland Yard. Forty-five years of age, Sir Basil Thomson has seen life from many angles.

Before the army knew him he read for the Bar, but was never called. He served for a spell in an engineer's shop, and became a highly skilled mechanic and a first-class carpenter.

In 1900, when he was 24, he joined the Duke of Cornwall's Light Infantry. Ten years later he gained his captaincy and entered upon his career proper. A staff captain he went to the War Office in 1911 and was a Lt.-Major by 1912, and D.A.A.G. War Office 1914.

RAPID PROMOTION.

In this last capacity he went to France with the British Expeditionary Force in August 1914, was mentioned three times in dispatches, and received the C.B. Promotion came fast, and in 1916 he became Director of Personal Services at the War Office, a position from which he retired on March 23 last.

Every man who fought in France remembers General Childs as the man responsible for the granting of the "twelve days' Christmas leave," and he saw to it that Tommy had fair play and no whittling.

A MONUMENTAL REFORM.

During his four years as Director of Personal Services his great aim was to make Army discipline more just—more humane. To this end he was the means of bringing about the "Suspension of Sentences Act."

Under this Act a soldier sentenced to death may possibly have his sentence commuted to penal servitude, and then suspended—all at the discretion of the Court. Thousands of soldiers have benefited by this reform, which has been described by a great soldier as "the most humane document in the history of the British Army."

THE $90,000,000 LOAN.

Officials Confident.

Chinese officials are apparently confident that the $90,000,000 loan will be completed, and they are now freely discussing further Consortium loans totalling $300,000,000, on the security of Customs' dues. The opinion is general that Japanese concurrence in the present loan was secured by the promised redemption of Japanese loans to the amount of $150,000,000 from the proceeds of subsequent loans, says Mr. Rodney Gilbert in the N. G. Daily News.

There is a report from Chinese quarters to the effect that, out of the prospective loan of $90,000,000, $16,000,000 will be devoted to administrative purposes; this amount to be obtained from Chinese banking groups when admitted to the Consortium, while the latter will supply $74,000,000 for the purpose of refunding loans which are secured on the Salt Surplus only.

The Foreign Salt Inspectorate will supervise the service for the amortization of the Chinese loan, together with the foreign loan.

This arrangement has obviously been designed to enable the Consortium to lend without violating the advertised precept "No Administrative Loans." Foreign bankers refuse to discuss prospects, but Chinese officials maintain a confident attitude.

ATTITUDE OF JAPAN.

Tokyo, Jan. 11. The reported instability of the Chinese administration is said to be prejudicing the Government's attitude towards China's application for a loan, which is now being considered. No decision has been reached but it is believed that it will be unfavourable unless China evinces a better spirit in carrying out military reform and other peaceful development.

73 YEARS A FREEMASON.

Centenarian Honoured.

At the quarterly meeting of the Grand Lodge of England Sir Alfred Robbins, president of the Board of General Purposes, reported that it had been brought to the notice of the board that there had been founded in London a lodge under the obedience of the Grand Orient of Belgium, which a few days hence was to be formally visited by its Grand Master, accompanied by several of the Grand Officers. As the Grand Orient of Belgium had not been accorded recognition by the United Grand Lodge of England since 1905, it was considered necessary to warn all members of English lodges that they could not visit any Belgian lodge or admit visitors therefrom, and it was desired to impress on them the strict observance of their Masonic duty in that regard.

The Duke of Connaught was nominated as Grand Master for the ensuing year, and Lord Amthill, the Pro Grand Master, announced that the Duke of Connaught had appointed Mr. Frank James to be a Past Senior Grand Deacon. Lord Amthill added that Mr. James had recently celebrated his 100th birthday, and had been a Mason for over 73 years. Lord Amthill also presented Hall Stone medals to the representatives of the first 38 lodges that have contributed the necessary quota to the Masonic Million Memorial Fund.

FORTUNE FROM DIAMONDS.

Mr. W. Lurcott, of Portland-place, London, W., diamond merchant, who died in October, aged 69, has left a fortune of £317,072. Bequests include £500 for such institutions as the executors may select, preference being given to those having for their objects the instruction in the evening of working lads.

PRESIDENT HARDING'S POLICY.

May be Forced to Control Congress.

The most important aspect of the present session of Congress is not President Harding's speech, and not his immediate programme, writes Mr. Mark Sullivan, political correspondent of the New York Evening Post. It is rather the concern felt by Republican leaders, within and without the Administration, about the way in which the Republican House and Senate have got completely out of hand, the determination of the Republican leaders to do something about it, and the efforts they are making right now in that direction.

When they get down to considering ways and means the most immediate and obvious device that occurs to the leadership to persuade Mr. Harding to take the leadership of Congress himself. This the leaders have done and are doing. The President, if he chooses, could assert leadership over the Republicans in the House and Senate and reduce them to party discipline within twenty hours. In any one of the several cases in which both the Senate and the House floated their Republican leaders and did what the leaders didn't want Mr. Harding could have prevented that outcome if he had wanted to. But Mr. Harding has never seemed to care to do what Wilson and Roosevelt were willing to do and frequently did do.

President Harding could have sent for leaders and members of the Houses and Senate himself, and he could have sent members of his Cabinet to labour with Senators and Congressmen. If he had chosen to do that he could have had his way on every bit of legislation that has come up. He can still do it if he chooses to. Many Republican leaders are urging him to do it now, and have hopes that the President will take command during the new sessions. This hope does not lie in anything Mr. Harding has said or done. Whether he has any crystallized intention of taking command no person can tell. But that he could do it, if he wanted to, admits of no question.

PATRONAGE THE "BIG STICK." It is frequently said by the cynical that a President can exercise control of the Senate and House as long as he has important patronage to bestow, and that if a President doesn't interpose himself during the first year by the use of his patronage he is not likely to be able to take control later. In the present case Mr. Harding still has a good deal of patronage, which he could use as a lever if he felt like it.

Further than that, in the present case, Mr. Harding's capacity to make himself leader rests on a different basis. He is popular throughout the country. The Senate and House are not popular. The members of the Senate and House know this, because they have just returned from vacations in which they found out how their constituents are feeling. The public makes a clean distinction between the Republican President and, on the other hand, the Republican House and Senate. Mr. Harding could, if he chose, use his personal popularity as a leverage to lead the House and Senate.

The Republican House and Senate would like very much just now to edge in under the mantle. Mr. Harding's personal popularity. Within a very few months the entire membership of the House will be up for re-election in primaries, and within a year they will all be up at a general election. The same is true of one-third of the members of the Senate. A Republican Senator or Representative running for re-election can have hardly any asset so great as the President's approval. Very soon now there will be calls from Republican Senators and Representatives for the President to write letters in their behalf or to visit their States and smile upon them before voters.

I surmise that Mr. Harding will do a good deal of thinking before he assumes leadership over Congress. At the same time, the greater likelihood is that he will come to it. When Mr. Harding, as a Senator, used to criticize dictation from Wilson on the White House he wasn't, as a goal many others were, merely grabbing any brick that was handy to throw at a Democratic President. Mr. Harding really meant it. It was deeply disturbed over its possible effects on our form of government.

HARDING RELUCTANT TO AGREE. The President is tenacious of ideas that lodge in his mind through his own processes of thought, and it will cause him much concern if he has to take the attitude towards Congress that Wilson and Roosevelt did. It isn't like Harding to do himself the thing he has honestly deplored in others. But the alternative of letting the Senate and House go on as they now are is too serious.

The worst aspect among many unfortunate aspects of this bloc system, or group system, that is growing up in the Capitol is that it gives the public no check on legislation. Elections are held, like the one last year, between the Republican and Democratic parties on definite issues. The success of one party or the other carries a mandate from the people to carry out one programme or the other. If, after an election, the Senate and House break up into blocs, then there is no organization capable of carrying out the programme and fulfilling the promises. Correspondingly, there is no organization upon whom the public can visit punishment at the next election.

The President can afford to let this bloc system continue to grow only on the assumption that he wants it to become worse before it is time to make it better; on the assumption that he contemplates in the future some important and fundamental change in the way our laws are made and in the relation between the executive and legislative branches. But, one way or the other, the President will have to take responsibility. Mr. Harding really has two offices. One is President of the United States. The other is an indefinite but nevertheless real responsible leadership of the Republican party. When the public tries to personify the Republican party it doesn't think of the national chairman, John T. Adams, nor the former national chairman, Will Hays. It thinks of Warren G. Harding. He can't very well escape the responsibility.

These are the reasons now being strongly urged why Harding should assume leadership of the Republican majority in the House and Senate; and this pressure is going to grow.

The Hongkong Telegraph

HONGKONG, SATURDAY, JANUARY 21, 1922.

DISINTERESTED VOLUNTEERS.

The Volunteer Orders published yesterday more than bore out what we stated in a "Note and Comment" on Monday; namely, that the interest of members of the Volunteer Corps has flagged to such a degree that official notice has had to be taken of it. Machine gunners were told in yesterday's Orders that "attendance at parades having been very poor up to date, members are requested to make an effort to attend those for the remainder of the Season." As training should be progressive, it is essential that attendances should be consecutive. And such a remark could be applied not only to machine gunners, but to the Corps almost in its entirety. In the same issue of our paper, we published the following telegram from our Singapore correspondent:—"One hundred and fifty Eurasians have enlisted in the Volunteers in Singapore. The total is now 900, including nearly 500 Europeans." Now, those parallel statements are not very much to the credit of Hongkong, and there ought to be a genuine endeavour made to find out why it is that we in Hongkong have fallen away in local patriotic effort.

The history of the volunteer movement in the two Colonies under review since the war is interesting. There were very strong objections made here to a continuance of the compulsory Defence Corps in the year following Armistice, so much so that the Government was induced to repeal the compulsory Ordinance and introduce one providing for a volunteer organisation. The response was only fairly good; it was never at any time distinctly pleasing and to-day the strength of the Corps is out of all proportion to its nominal establishment. In Singapore the position was a little different. The old compulsory status was retained for a much longer period than here and even a revised compulsory Ordinance was introduced into the Council. Public opinion proved too insistent, however, and eventually a Volunteer Bill was passed. The response of the men of Singapore has been very much better than here, and our local officers would indeed be pleased to see even half the Singapore numbers. Either the men of Hongkong are in fault through a spirit of indifference or the officers of the Corps are in fault through failure to provide interesting training and work. We think the blame rests about equally on both, though by that we condemn the general system of training rather than the commissioned personnel. The officers are far less responsible for what is happening in the way of falling off than the methods through which they have to work and we think the men are far more "fed up" than indifferent. It is necessary to get that plainly stated. To blame the individuals and overlook the fact that it is a system which has failed would be wrong.

There must, of course, be a good deal of ordinary routine drilling and practise. It is only with drilled men that one can do anything when the time of emergency comes. But it is not essential to confine volunteer work in that way. Much more interesting exercises could be thought out, and some genuine attempt could be made to give an esprit de corps and to develop a little on social lines. "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" and all drills and no fun makes a volunteer, less keen. Some thought could also be given to the suggestion recently made to us that all men, who by reason of past lengthy military service can always be counted "efficient" should be excused the routine drills. They inevitably find these irksome. At all events it has been amply proved both by the Corps own Orders and by the Bill introduced in the Legislative Council on Monday that interest is flagging. It is up to the heads of the organisation to study the problem and find a remedy. And it is also up to the men to help them.

NOTES & COMMENTS.

School Reports.

The days just before Chinese New Year are always marked by prize distributions in our local schools, and this year has produced its usual plethora of headmasters' and headmistresses' reports. And from the reading of them one would almost imagine that our schools are well-nigh perfect, for there is a marked absence of anything like real criticism. When the head of a school ceases to be critical he or she is getting into that self-satisfied groove wherein educational effort is merely a matter of routine. It may be that the heads of our local schools realise that it is no use to grumble and therefore choose the easier path of expressing but little qualified satisfaction of the year under review. That there is room for constructive criticism regarding the way in which most of our Government schools are run there is not the slightest doubt among those best qualified to know, but the public very seldom hears of it. That is natural when one considers the system whereby our teachers are Civil Servants. In the matter of equipment, syllabus, and adequacy of staff, if any, of our local schools are up to the standard which should be aimed at. The staffs do remarkably well, considering the general disabilities under which they work. If we could read one headmaster's report in which he told the public just what he thought and in which he strictly "sub-edited" the usual "padding" we should feel that the true spirit of education was alive at least in one of our local schools. The evidence this year has proved nothing more than that our schools exist, notwithstanding the lengthy examination result list just published by the University.

Bluff.

We were not very surprised to learn that the s.s. Kinsban made the journey to Canton without bringing back any cargo. The opinion was freely expressed here that she wouldn't be successful and just why is told in our news columns to-day. In view of the fact that the Guilds in Canton are behind the Seamen's Guild here in this strike and in view of the fact also that the Canton Government is in keen sympathy with the labour party one cannot be surprised at an armed boat from Hongkong not being allowed to go alongside the usual wharf to load goods. It will be interesting to see whether any greater degree of accommodation will be extended later. But it would be far more interesting, though, to see some genuine attempt made to bring the parties in the dispute together. One cannot avoid the conviction that there is a little bluffing being done on both sides, but we think it is a rather late in the day for that sort of thing. The present deadlock will have to be ended by one of the parties at one time or another and it would be just as well to remember it. We cannot see either side "breaking" the other into a total surrender; the men won't come back on the old scale and the Companies won't be forced to grant the full demands. Both parties have other remedies. Therefore, the best thing that could happen is a resumption of the "talkative" with a view to ending the whole business.

High Interest.

The man with a little spare money to invest in, in these days of high interest, a luckier individual than his forbears. The Australian Commonwealth has just issued a six per cent. loan; British Local Bonds paying nearly six per cent. are now on the market; a few days ago it was announced that the Anglo-Persian Oil Company (almost entirely owned by the British Government) were to issue debentures almost at eight per cent; and so one could go on to give a further list of "gil-edged" securities bearing dividends undreamt of before the war. When we remember what Consols, used to pay the above figures seem ridiculously extravagant. But signs are not wanting to show that high interest will soon begin to pass away. There is plenty of available cash at home for sound loans and this is borne out by the fact that the Australian loan was over subscribed long before the closing date. London has very largely come into its own again as a lending centre; New York has plenty of spare money available and so we can hope to see a little competition in the loan market. And such a movement is all for the good. Lower interest will mean lower prices. The world is gradually slipping back into the old and rather comfortable groove.

In view of the approaching Chinese New Year holidays the Government notifies in the latest Government Gazette the districts in which cracker firing can be indulged in and also the time at which such firing will be allowed. The notice includes the following injunctions:—

PASSIM PAPERS.

Rambling Thoughts on Current Matters.

Hear the plaint of a fellow pressman who has been trying for a week to interview taipans concerning the strike: "They're a hopeless set. I hope they all die of over-eating or suffer from varicose veins. They are inaccessible physically—I suspect because they feel they are inaccessible mentally. You blow in to see them and a superior junior asks your business. You state it and he retires to debate the matter with what seems a inferior senior. The half-and-half ponders visibly and (sometimes) theatrically; then he gives his verdict and the superior junior returns to say that if you call back at 2.30 Mr. X. may have something to say. That is finely indefinite, but you turn up hopefully at 2.30. And then you are told that Mr. X. is out at some conference. That means that he's in the Hongkong Club telling lies about his puttings. Curse them, I say."

The Public Should Know.

"Here's a strike on and the public wants to know what's what. It has a right to know what's what because the matter may affect its food supplies now and (since the public pays for losses sooner or later) will affect its pocket sometime and somehow. The public looks to us for information as it has a right to look and when I go for that information I am either superiorly told that the matter is of no interest to the public or that the taipan cannot be seen. I am treated as though I were an inquisitive person who must be put in his place. Hang it all! I don't want the information for myself. I don't ask for news because I am greedy for news. I'm sick of the look of news. But I have to visit A because B and C want to hear about A; and I expect A to help me because he wants, to-day or to-morrow, to read about B or C. The whole business should be mutual, reciprocal; but it isn't. It's a dog's life."

Whose Fault?

My friend was a little tired and a little disgruntled, as all of us are at times, and his remarks need not be taken at their face value. But there is a deal in what he says. The average man is very wary of reporters, though that is sometimes the fault of the reporters. I have known them dive for pencil and notebook the moment a man started to speak. I am thinking, of course, not of the platform orator but of the more ordinary person on whom the reporter calls in hopes that he may communicate something of interest. That man is scared by the sight of paper and pencil, and one need not blame him for that. It is one thing to give a reporter a few leading facts upon which he can build a story. It was quite another thing to have every word taken down and (he fears) reproduced. He immediately becomes afraid lest he should say too much or lest he should say something badly, awkwardly, loosely. And he closes like a clam. Older newspaper men know that it is wise to let a man get properly started before the pencil comes out. Then one says: "Ah, that's important. I must get that quite accurately." That pleases the interviewed, who is already at his ease, and the rest is simple.

The Other Viewpoint.

But I am not blaming the reporter every time by any means. Heaven knows, here in the East it is a heart-breaking business at times to persuade men to speak when they have actually something worth communicating and when there is no reason for keeping silent and sufficient reason for being open and frank. Hongkong is not peculiar in this respect; the same holds all over the Far East. Why this should be so, one does not know. Newspaper men at home know that, speaking generally, the bigger the man the more accessible he is and the more courteous the reception he offers. He may have nothing to say, but he will be polite about it; may even put the caller on his honour and explain why it is inadvisable to speak. That's your really big man. If I cried to be rude, I should say that we had there got at that missing reason. But, as I am not a vindictive person nor acquainted with taipans I set it down to the climate. Anyway, I wish they would try to grasp the fact that when a reporter calls for information he does so not because he personally is interested but because he is sent by an editor who has a duty to the public and who recognises that every man is, at one time or other, under an obligation to speak concerning himself because he claims the right to read about others.

Public In The Dark.

About this strike, be the way, are not both sides behaving rather pottishly—getting peeved? The men make a demand and, after a time, the owners make somewhat of an offer. The men amend their demand, give way a little, and, being Chinese, expect the other side to come a little nearer. They were out, they say, for bargaining and, knowing what the Chinese are, one believes them. But the owners withdraw their offer, presumably because the men had not come far enough down, and the men returned to their original demand, presumably out of temper because the owners had declined to bargain further. A pretty way, this, of trying to settle a dispute. Evidently neither side cares much about the public though one should suppose that the public has some right to be considered. One should suppose, in fact, that the public has every right to be considered. I am not taking sides or trying to enter into the merits of the dispute. But it is cooling the Colony money and one comes near to getting angry at the thought that no attempt seems to have been made to have a meeting between representatives of both sides. Owners and seamen seem to have mismanaged the whole business very miserably; at least that is the feeling of the man in the street who regards the whole affair with feelings of exasperation. If that is a wrong feeling, who is to blame? Has any attempt been made to place the public, which is interested, in possession of facts that shall enable it to judge of the merits of the dispute?

Mr. Irving Becomes Mournful.

I see that Mr. Irving is vaxing himself because some European children in Kowloon British School cannot spell so well as some Portuguese and Chinese children. What is the man so mournful about? I should be as pleased as Punch if I were him. I have no brows of mechanical youngsters who can spell testotoler without having a word at the dictionary; there's no originality in them. But the lad who can't spell may go far. Robert Louis Stevenson could not spell and he was content to let the

THE MANILA FIRE.

Thatched Hut District Swept.

AN ENORMOUS BLAZE

(Special Telegram to the "Telegraph.")

Manila, January 20.

The fire broke out in the thatched hut district to the north of Yondo and eventually rendered homeless twelve thousand people. It broke out on Tuesday evening, the flames jumping for hundreds of yards in one swoop. The fire outstanced the firemen and motors, and the district was gutted.

The origin is believed to be an incendiary, emanating from the thatched and bamboo peddlers.

The Red Cross immediately relieved the sufferers. None was killed.

Governor-General Wood has assigned to Colonel Gordon Johnston the work of administering Government relief.

The Governor-General sponsors also a building loan of five pesos per share in an organization for the raising of P100,000 to purchase a tract of land on which to rebuild the houses with stronger materials. Mr. Yanco, the former Commissioner to Washington, has been appointed President of the organization and Mr. Netting, President of the Bank of the Philippine Islands, the Vice-president.

MILK MENACE TO CHILDREN.

It has now been conclusively proved, says the county tuberculosis officer of Lancashire, in his annual report, that several kinds of non-pulmonary tuberculosis in children arise from drinking milk from tuberculous cows.

mechanical friend do it for him. Robert MacWhirter can't spell and that's why Joe and I draw smaller salaries than he does. We are kept so busy spelling for him, that we cannot think and he is so throng thinking that he cannot spell. Then again, Mr. Irving is perturbed because some of these wee smouts at Kowloon do not write excellent English. That's fine! If they keep on stubbornly they'll escape this dreary business of pen-driving and become plumbers or foremen fitters—something really useful.

Between Ourselves

By Robt. MacWhirter.

Yesterday I met an old friend whom I'd not seen for quite a while. Joe was with me at the time. (Oh, ay, he and I are all right again). Well, as I was saying, the three of us met in Pedder Street and as we were all going the same way, my friend, he says, come in and have one with me. Which we did.

By and by we got discussing the strike. Of course every newspaper man's a fair butt when it comes to the man in the street handing out his views. Ay, I felt a bit vexed for Joe. He didn't cause the blamed strike anyway. Nor was he responsible for you four district watchmen being sent to dicker with the Union officials. What if the Canton Government was at the back of this business? Joe, he couldn't be expected to send a man to Kweilin to interview President Sun Yat-sen and ask him if such was the case. He hasn't got the money for that. He's no Union official that can perform miracles on an annual subscription of $1.70 to say nothing of being able to hand out cigars to the reporters.

Still and on the Union men seem to be better to the reporters than the owners are. Never a cigar going there. Just a cold communique that there's nothing to communicate. And then they go away sadly. The very thought of it leaves me so vexed that I'm in no trim for writing and I'm due at the Taikoo Ball in another hour's time anyway.

But I mustn't forget. You'll mind that yesterday I said something to the effect that the average man presents some queer contrasts in his life from day to day. Curiously enough I found a very apt confirmation of this in one of the papers my friend pressed on me just before we parted. It's from the Colony Eye-Opener in its issue under date December 3. I'll give ye it just as it stands:—

Smith and Jones, happen to meet on the street. One may overhear, in passing, their brief serious dialogue:

"I sent in my tender and specifications last night and cut every item down pretty fine. The man who bids lower than me will lose money. I've got everything fixed up with the bank and it won't interfere a particle with the other contracts I have on hand. How did you make out yourself on that big deal you were telling me about?"

"Oh, not too bad. Where are you off to now?"

"I'm on my way to the Institute where I'm booked to deliver an address on money, its uses and abuses."

"Well, so long, old man!"

"So long!"

An evening or two later, scene is laid in the bachelor apartments of mutual friend. Same man, Smith and Jones.

"Well, Jonesy old boy, drink up and we'll have another."

"Thazzi, Smithy old cock, we'll have another. A man's man for a that and damned be he who first cries 'Hold, enough!'"

"You're quite a poet, Jonesy."

"You bet your sweet life I'm a poet. Did you ever hear wunnerful poem, the curfew tolls the bell of morn, the lowly swine squeals blithely o'er the leaf?"

"Gimme Robbie Burns every time—the cock may crow and the day may daw, but aye we'll prece the barley brea. Hoops! Whee-ee!"

As you jushly remark, Smithy, there's nothing too good for the Irish, so let's have another Scotch."

"Thazza go, thazza go!"

Sunday comes along. Mr. Smith and his family enter the church portals about the same time as Mr. Jones and his family. Mr. Jones bows gravely to Mr. Smith, and Mr. Smith bows gravely to Mr. Jones. In a few minutes they are standing up in their respective pews, singing Rock of Ages, and the world wags on.

QUEEN'S COLLEGE.

Prize Distribution.

Queen's College annual prize distribution took place this morning, when H. E. the Governor attended and performed the ceremony. There was a good attendance of other leading local residents and officials.

The annual report of the headmaster (Mr. B. Tanner) stated—

ATTENDANCE.

The total number of scholars enrolled during the year ending December 31st, 1931, was 887—75 less than in the previous year.

The average daily attendance throughout the year was 542 being 38 less than during 1930. These reductions were due to the fact that, consequent upon the beginning of the school year being postponed from September 1931 to January 1st, of the present year, no admissions were made in September, although almost 300 applications for enrolment were received.

STAFF.

The year witnessed numerous changes on the Staff. For the greater part of the time, during my absence on leave, Mr. Bird, Headmaster of the Ellis Kadoorie School, was in charge here, and I take this opportunity of expressing on behalf of all connected with the school the greatest appreciation of his unfailing interest and consideration. In January, Mr. Kay returned from leave. In February Mrs. Arnold resigned after several years of very valuable work. In June, Mr. Tang Shu-sham was appointed to the Staff after taking a degree in Arts and Education at the University of Hongkong. On August 31st, I returned from leave and resumed duty. Mr. Fletcher, Mr. Handyside and Mrs. Stubbings all returned in November, and at the end of December we were very pleased to welcome Miss Grant when she arrived and was appointed to serve on the Staff, where she has already settled down and is doing good work.

On the Vernacular side the Staff has remained practically the same; the only changes being the appointment in June of Mr. Mak Si-wan to a permanent post, and a vacancy—not yet filled—caused by the death of Mr. Sung Yuk-sang, a very useful and energetic master, in September.

Mr. Sung Hok-pang, Senior Vernacular master, deserves the greatest credit for his very efficient organisation and control of Vernacular Studies.

In October we sustained a very serious loss in the death of the late Mr. Kong Ki-fai, who as pupil and master had been connected with the College for no less a period than 25 years. Appreciative notices of this genial and deservedly popular Master have already appeared in the "Yellow Dragon" but I feel I must say how very general among the boys and Members of the Staff is the feeling that it is simply impossible to replace a man who so closely and wholeheartedly identified himself with the numerous and varied activities and interests of the School. Then, in December, occurred the death of Sir Boshan Wei Yuk, an old Queen's College boy, who not only took a sincere and unfailing interest in his old school and undertook the duties of Trustee for the Junior and Senior Stewart Scholarships, but gained for himself in the Colony, a well-merited reputation, officially and privately, for soundness of character and straight dealing.

DISCIPLINE.

The discipline of the School has been well maintained. This is a matter that year by year calls for greater attention, since as a result of the age limit, we are admitting younger and more irresponsible boys, who require a greater amount of individual control than was necessary a few years ago.

Notwithstanding this, it is still a matter of never-failing surprise to masters and mistresses coming from home and newly appointed to the Staff to find with what absolute ease a Class of Chinese boys may be controlled, and to note their general keenness for school work.

ORGANISATION.

Principally so that we might come into line with University arrangements, it has been decided that in future the School Year shall begin on January 1st, and end on the 31st December. As a result of this change our Annual and Admission Examinations were held, and Promotions for the New Year made in December, and I am glad to say that almost all our classes have now been comfortably settled down to work for something more than a fortnight.

Another very important development of the school organisation has been the formation, with Sir Robert Ho Tung as first President, of the Old Boys' Association, a body of distinguished and enthusiastic old boys whose numbers continue steadily to increase. The first Annual Dinner of this Association was an almost historic event, but that the intention of its promoters goes far beyond meeting to dine and for social intercourse, is proved by the fact that they have already provided very liberally for the establishment of a Chinese section of our lending and reference library, they have very generously supplied prizes in connection with different branches of school sport, and they have expressed their intention of presenting additional scholarships to the College.

HEALTH OF SCHOOL.

The health of the school, has on the whole been quite good. Dr. Valentine examined all boys enrolled during the year, and those recommended by him for treatment have received attention while those who required them, have been supplied with spectacles.

STUDIES.

As a result of the change in the School Year, an additional term of 4 months was available for preparation for University and Annual Class Examinations. This, although very useful in the case of backward students, was not quite an unmixed blessing so far as the brighter boys and members of the staff were concerned.

A total of 23 boys set for the Matriculation Examination of the University. Of these 13 Matriculated while 2 were awarded a Senior Local pass. Although 2 of our boys, in Tak-chuet and Cheung Wai-fung obtained honours, we are unable to boast this year of having gained either the King Edward or President's Scholarship, since, our best boys entered for the July examination instead of waiting till December.

The whole of our Class 2 boys, numbering 56, sat for the Junior Local examination and of these 49 passed while 7 failed: of these failures 2 were Chinese out of 48 who sat, 4 were Indians out of 6, and 1 Japanese out of 2. In this section 29 Distinctions were gained; one boy, Lo Tung-fan, obtaining no less than 5.

Although these Junior results are very gratifying there is a feeling among masters responsible that the University Authorities perhaps allow boys to get through this examination somewhat too easily, and that it would be better for all concerned if greater numbers of them were kept back at this stage.

In Class 3 of the 147 boys examined 100 passed in English and Vernacular and qualified for promotion to Class 2 where they will prepare for the Junior Local.

In the Lower School—Classes 4 to 8—we examined 234 boys, of whom 233 qualified for promotion. Of failures in this part of the School the greater number were in the newly-formed division of Class 8, where all the boys are very young and where it will do them no harm to remain for another 6 months or a year. In all these Class examinations, no boy is entitled to promotion unless he reached an average standard of 50 per cent. in all branches on both the English and Vernacular sides. Out of a total of 441 examined by the Staff, 60 boys failed to reach the pass standard in English and 14 in Chinese.

ATHLETICS.

Sport continues to flourish and football, cricket, tennis, volleyball, basketball, running, swimming, boxing and even base-ball and ping-pong—each under the direction of a specially interested master—all possess a keenly enthusiastic following. Although so far as the collecting of trophies is concerned, we experienced a somewhat lean year, in all inter-school competitions we have given a good account of ourselves, especially in volleyball, basketball and swimming.

The inter-class games in football and volleyball were as keenly contested as ever, and after some very exciting finishes the Shield for football was won by Class 3A Commercial Side, while that for Volley-ball now adorns the wall in the class-room of Class 3A, University Side.

Throughout the lower school—classes 4 to 8—instruction in Physical Drill and Gymnastics is given daily by specially qualified instructors at the Chinese Y. M. C. A., where our boys are also allowed the use of the very excellent swimming-pool.

Our boxing instructor is the well-known Sergeant "Kid" Marriott of the Naval Ordnance Depot.

For Chinese boxing an instructor is provided by the Chinese Boxing Association.

Membership of both these classes has dwindled very considerably, but new members are already signing on, and we hope to begin work with both classes up to their full strength after the Chinese New Year holiday.

Chess has again come into its own and, under the direction of Mr. Tang Shu-sham, the members of the Club meet twice a week for instruction and play.

There is also a Chinese Chess-club controlled by the College branch of the Y. M. C. A.

A few years ago we complained of the lack of interest taken in games. Now, the difficulty is to arrange so that games shall not interfere with regular school work, which is, after all, what we are here to do.

LIBRARY.

The Library and Reading Room (English and Chinese) continue to be of great service, especially to the Staff and boys in the Upper School.

We are indebted, as I mentioned earlier in this Report to the Old Boys' Association for the gift of $100 that has been spent on the Chinese books for the use of present students.

Mr. Updell acted as librarian during the absence on leave of Mr. Handyside, and we owe him our best thanks for the very efficient way in which he, assisted by the School Prefects, discharged the duties of the post.

THE COLLEGE MAGAZINE.

The Yellow Dragon, again under the able editorship of Mr. Kay, is now in its 23rd year. The average circulation for 1931 was slightly over 800 copies per month, an increase of about 200 over the previous year's circulation. This increase is largely due to the formation of the O. B. A. and also to the fact that we have now about 50 outside subscribers on our list. We are still able to boast that the "Dragon" finds its way into all five continents, and we have begun the present year with a circulation of 1,100 copies.

GENERAL.

Altogether the year under review has a very prosperous one, and a great deal of good work has been done. All our social organisations are very vigorously alive and continue to play an important part in the life of the School. Still we realize that in many directions there is room for improvement, and so long as we realize that and endeavour that each year shall prove an advance on the preceding one, we need not despair of adequately filling the place we are intended to in the educational work of the Colony.

Our new Chemistry laboratory, so long talked-of and hoped-for, is now just on the point of completion and will be ready for occupation when we begin work after the New Year holidays.

To Mr. de Rome we offer congratulations upon having been created a Member of the British Empire, to Mr. Updell upon his appointment as Honorary Chaplain to His Majesty's Forces with the rank of Captain, to Mr. Ho Kwong, an old boy and generous friend of the School, and to Mr. Tse Yan-lung upon the decorations recently bestowed upon them by the President of the Chinese Republic.

We also owe very special thanks to Mr. Ho Kwong for providing special prizes for Vernacular Composition and for competition in Class 7 and the 2 divisions of Class 8, amounting altogether in value to $250.

In conclusion I desire, on behalf of the School, to thank Your Excellency for honouring us by consenting to distribute the prizes to-day, the visitors for their attendance, those who have so generously contributed to the Prize Fund, and last, but by no means least, all members of the Staff for their loyal support and unremitting efforts, in work and games, to encourage a spirit of honest work and clean sportsmanship among our boys, and to keep alive the best traditions of the School.

The prize-list is too lengthy to be given by us to-day.

COMMERCIAL NEWS.

SHANGHAI COAL MARKET.

Messrs Wheelock & Co. Shanghai, in their circular of 12th. January, state: Japan Coal.—We have another dull fortnight to report in this market which, however, is hardly to be wondered at considering the near approach of China
New Year when, as has been the custom from time immemorial, the Chinese square up accounts between themselves and Native dealers are averse to entering into any new business transactions until after the holidays. In Japan the coal market is getting firmer day by day, according to latest reports.—Fushun Coal.—No change.—Fushun Anthracite.—
The same remarks as above apply also in this case and we do not expect to see any new business done until after the holidays which occur at the end of this month.—Kaiping Coal.—Although the market remains quiet prices here are firm in sympathy with the demand in the North and small stocks in Japan.—
Arrivals have been fairly large but deliveries have continued on the same steady basis as during the last few months.

MACHINE THAT BORES AND LINES TUNNELS.

A New York message says:
Engineers here are interested in a new tunnel-making machine, invented by Mr. Roy Shoen, of Philadelphia, which, as it bores, removes the earth it displaces and leaves the cavity behind it lined with concrete blocks, wet or dry as desired. In four hours on a job in Philadelphia the machine built 18 ft. 8 in. of finished tunnel, 52 in. in diameter. It is claimed that the invention will revolutionise present methods of building sewers, water mains, conduits and the like, obviating completely the open cut. The machine, which is worked by eight men, has a boring head and a rotating tail attachment, the head being so arranged that its centre can be moved up or down, or right or left.

ONE-DAY STRIKE BY FRENCH
MINERS.

A Paris message states that the miners had a 24 hours' protest strike because unsold coal which remains at the pitsides is causing unemployment. One of the reasons for the stagnation of the market is the competition of British, German, Belgian and American coal, which is being sold at a lower price than French coal. A demand is made by the miners that the owners should reduce their prices and that French manufacturers should content to buy French instead of foreign coal.

BIRMINGHAM AND JAPANESE
TRADE.

In order to maintain intimate commercial relations with Japan, the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce has agreed periodically to exchange memoranda concerning commercial and industrial problems. Arrangements are also being made for Sir Robert Horne and the Commercial Secretary of the Japanese Embassy to visit Birmingham.

SHIPPING NEWS.

THE NIPPON YUSEN KAISHA'S HEAD OFFICE.

The new head office building for the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, which is being erected in Marunouchi, Tokyo, by the George A. Fuller Co. of the Orient Ltd., from plans prepared by Some and Chujo, architects, will, when completed, be one of the finest buildings in the East, says the N.Y.K. "Travel Bulletin." The new building will house the entire head office staff of the Company and will be equipped in a manner in keeping with buildings of similar character in Western countries. Many new and practical ideas are being carried out in the design and construction work; a brief description being as follows: The building, owing to sub-soil condition, is carried on pile foundation, wood piles fifty feet in length being used for this purpose. The frame is what is known as skeleton steel type of construction with reinforced concrete floor and roof arches. The three street facades of the building will be faced with pink granite and terra cotta, the terra cotta matching in colour finish and texture the granite used in the building. The interior will be modern and high class in every respect, the ornamental features being carried out in iron, bronze, marble, ornamental plaster and teakwood. The best modern engineering practices have been introduced into the design of the plumbing, heating and electrical equipment. The elevator installation will consist of nine high speed elevators. For the accommodation of the employees a large dining hall with private and officers' dining rooms will occupy a large portion of the seventh floor. The kitchens have been planned and designed with much care to secure maximum amount of length and ventilation. The kitchen equipment will be modern in every respect, the same having been laid out by foreign experts in this line. In addition to the dining room feature there will also be located on the seventh floor, a large assembly hall which will be used for lectures, and other business and social events. In the basement of the building there will be housed the company's private printing plant, which will turn out all of the company's printing and pamphlet matter. Throughout the entire planning and construction work to date the main thought on the part of the company and those to whom the planning and construction work has been entrusted is to produce when completed a building which will be of modern character and dignity which will be in keeping with the character and dignity of the company.

BIG SHIPPING DEAL.

Four hundred buyers representing world-wide interests were at the Shipping Exchange, London, last month, when Messrs. Lachlan and Company sold the Maundy fleet of ten steel screw steamers, with a tonnage of 41,000. Mr. E. Hartley, for the firm, said 240 inspecting orders had been issued, which showed that there were people who were still prepared to take an interest in shipping. The vessels were offered in one lot, and the bidding rose from £210,000 to £250,000, at which sum they were sold to Mr. D. R. Llewellyn. Mr. Llewellyn is regarded in Wales as the legitimate successor to the late Lord Rhonda as a creator of combines. Still on the right side of 40, he has in the last 15 years steadily acquired more and more pits. He was already, in 1918, at the head of the dry steam coal industry in South Wales, and since then he has engaged in coal and steel deals representing about £7,000,000. In these he has been associated with Mr. H. Seymour Berry and Viscountess Rhonda.

THREE MILE BRIDGE.

A Bucharest message says: Communication between Bucharest and the Black Sea ports has been restored by the reopening of the bridge over the Danube at Cernavoda. This bridge carries the railway from Constantza to Bucharest. It was destroyed by the Germans in 1917, and reconstruction work was commenced immediately after the Armistice was signed. First opened in 1895, the value of the route lies in the fact that it remains open when the Danube closes for navigation in winter, and ships are not able to discharge their cargoes at Galatz. The total length of the bridge with its approaches is nearly three miles, and, taking into account the difficulty of obtaining a secure foundation, its construction may be regarded as one of the greatest engineering feats of modern times.

TAIKOO BALL.

Last Night's Successful Function.

Taikoo was invaded last night by many hundreds of people bent on evening's enjoyment. Strings of motor cars and many launches had as their rendezvous the Taikoo Club Hall. Nor was anyone disappointed for the Club Ball was a complete success. The elaborate arrangements made by the energetic Committee left nothing to be desired. Everyone had a good time.

Unfortunately Mr. G. T. Edkins, the President, was unavoidably prevented from being present, much to the regret of the staffs of the Dockyard and Sugar Refinery. The function was honoured by the presence of the two Vice Presidents, Mr. J. Reid and Mr. H. C. Resker, and of Mrs. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Dyer, Mr. T. H. R. Shaw, Dr. Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. W. Nicholson, Lt.-Commander Hake, and many outside friends.

The Decorations.

The Club Hall wherein the dancing took place presented a very fine appearance. The walls were treated with lines of evergreen foliage broken up at intervals with garlands in the centre of which shone red, blue and yellow electric lights. The stage had been pushed back leaving ample room for the guests to dance in comfort. Overhead were hung elaborate pendants attached to which were clusters of red lanterns, and more coloured lights overhead assisted in making the ballroom a blaze of light. Pot plants at intervals gave a pleasing finish to the decorations. The Hongkong Hotel orchestra, which was on the gallery, rendered an excellent programme of music and Messrs. McKewen, Ferguson and Drummond with the bagpipes assisted during the dancing of the Eight-some Reels and Caledonians. It was not until 2 a.m. that a very full programme was completed and all retired homeward, tired but happy having spent a most enjoyable evening.

The Dances.

The programme was as follows:

- Extra Waltz.....On Miami Shore.
- 1.—Lancers.....Amelia.
- 2.—One Step.....Timbuctoo.
- 3.—Fox Trot.....Near Me.
- 4.—Eight-some Reel.....Diel among the Tailors.

- 21.—One Step.....Florida Moon.
- 22.—Waltz.....To-morrow Land.

Extras 1.—Fox Trot.

2.—One Step.

3.—Waltz.

The mess room and verandah, comfortably arranged and nicely decorated, were utilised for sitting out accommodation.

A Running Buffet.

In order to avoid congestion, a running buffet was conducted throughout the proceedings, the catering by the Hongkong Hotel Company affording every satisfaction. The pillars in the supper room were decorated with the colours of the Dock Company and of the Sugar Refinery Company, and a good deal of bunting. On the other side of the partition the supplies of stronger refreshments were unlimited. The entrance to the hall was brilliantly illuminated and the decorations here were in harmony with those inside.

A word of praise is due to the energetic committees for the excellent arrangements made, to those who so effectively carried out the decorations, and especially to the officials—Mr. A. Hamilton (Chairman), Mr. J. Whyte and Mr. M. O'Brien. The Committees were:

Decorations Committee: Messrs. Grimshaw, Simpson, T. Young and Gray.

Supper Committee: Messrs. Duncan, McCubbin, Peoples and Austin.

Cloakroom Committee: Messrs. Whyte and Robertson.

Reception Committee: Messrs. Hamilton, Drummond and Grimshaw.

Refreshments and Card Room Committee: Messrs. O'Brien, Weir, James Sloan and McLeod.

Dance Committee: Messrs. Sneath, C. B. Matthews, C. Young and Hope.
